“ I did not know Bill very well or very long while I worked at 312, but from what I could tell Bill was a gentle hearted soul and I always looked forward to seeing his and you, Stormy, stop in at work. You both always had a smiles on your faces and warm personalities to brighten our work day. Bill will be very miss. I'm sorry for your loss.

“ Here is my good old Bill Wolff story. I met Bill when I was 15 years old and working as a construction laborer. I worked with another guy who was teaching me the ropes so I had to follow the guy everywhere so Bill proceeded to give me the nickname "Shadow" since I had to follow them everywhere. I have so many fond memories of working with all the guys, but Bill made me feel special and certainly didn't let anyone mess with "The Shadow". As I look back I cherish all those laughs and memories that we have together. Bill set such a great example for me to follow and being 41 now I can look both forward and back and have such a great sense of pride knowing that Bill Wolff is my friend. I got a tattoo when I was 17 with the word "Shadow". I can look at it any time and be reminded of the person Bill Wolff helped me become today. All the love to the rest of the family and "Thank you" Bill Wolff for having such a positive impact on my life. I'll think about the times we shared often and ask myself....What would Bill Wolff do?

“ Back in the day, as Bill would say. I got a call from Bill, he said there was a family in need of help and could I give him a hand helping get their home addition completed? The husband is sick and not working so there wouldn't be any money in the job. I met Bill on the job and we got started. It was a kitchen expansion, that had been started a year ago, before her husband got sick. So Bill took care of the inside hooking up the sink and all inside work while I finished the siding and roofing. When I asked the woman of the house how she washes the dishes, her reply was in the bath tub. As we completed the job and were ready to go she said let me buy you guys a beer. She went over to the table and emptied her purse out and came up with about $4.50 in change. I said to Bill we can't take her money, he replied oh yes we can because it will make her feel good. Just one of the many lessons I learned from Bill. He was not only this family's hero he is mine.

“ Dearest Stormy, I know this pain and am so sorry for your loss of dear Bill. You know that I know Bill through my sweet Bob. I was only in Bob's life for a short time, but I remember Bill from his help while we were rebuilding Bob's house after the fire. One of the days that Bill was there (I think it was the one where he tried to convince me that I didn't really need the disposal that I had bought and should get a smaller one that would not require him moving pipes around under the sink...I won that one), two other friend/sub-contractors were also working (Don Jones and Chris Jungmann) that day and it was Chris's birthday. Bob bought a cake and we all sat up in the office over the garage having some lunch. I remember Bob getting this big grin on his face as he looked around and saying "Well, looks like we're getting the band back together!". You had already moved, but Bill was helping us out on a trip back to Chicago. It was a nice moment for me to see this group of men who so obviously respected and cared for each other (even though they were always teasing each other). Bob really loved Bill, and I am happy that I was able to spend a little time with such a kind man. Love and strength to you and your family. Kate McClelland Vickery

“ Of course I have known Bill since I was little since we are cousins. He was always happy and friendly. Seeing the two of you together Stormy, I could always tell how in love you were. He was so proud of Kim's singing, as I witnessed at her concerts that I attended. I just remember having a great conversation with him at Amber's wedding. He was just beaming about how well everything was going in Nashville. It was so nice to chat with him, as I didn't see you all very often. That will be exactly how I remember him. My heartfelt condolences go out to you and the family. The Glaubitz family is a great bunch! We are all always there for each other whenever necessary. Love and prayers to all. Cousin Lynn

“ So sad. I met Bill by playing drums for one of his talented daughters. Bill made sure that all 4 of his girls (Stormy, April, Kim, and Stacy) were the center of his universe. That one day that involved me having the please of playing behind his daughter for a couple of hours instead became a lifelong experience of me gaining an extended family. He insisted we go to his favorite pizza place at the time, showed me around all of northern Illinois, took me to one of his favorite pizza places at the time, giordanos, and he turned me on to spotted cow beer. Something I owe him for greatly. All this upon our first meeting. He was a great man that opened his heart and family to me and I thank him sooo much for being the great man he was. He's left one hell of a legacy in his great wife, daughters, and grandchildren. I truly will miss him.
