“ First of all... I'm gonna miss you. You were the one i been talking to lately, when things weren't right for me. I know God needed a boss up there and that's why you were summoned, as much as i hate this, I'll see you later!

Love ya, Lynetta

“ CJ my girl, my afternoon chat buddy! I will miss our talks & our connection we formed these last couple of years of us working together! I will cherish the memories I have of those times... you were a bright spot in a lot of days & I hope I was the same to you.

Dana, I will continue to pray for you & your family that God will cover all in comfort during this tragic time.

“ Wanda and Dana, my heart is broken for you and your family. Christina was bright spot in what could be a less than sunny work environment. We are less because of her passing although, without a doubt, heaven has welcomed another angel home.

“ I'm shocked and saddened to hear this. My condolences to the family and friends.

Yvette Ruffin - January 11 at 10:57 AM

“ Sweet CJ, I will miss your hugs and your kindness! You were such a special person. I remember your first day working in Ms. Jones' unit downtown. You were a quick learner and you did such a great job. You were so very helpful to our clerical unit.

Dana and family, we will have you in our prayers today and always. May you find peace and comfort during this difficult time. We love ya darlin.

“ When you're so heartbroken that words can't express how this loo feels of my best friend. A piece of me has died also now. I'm lost without you CJ waiting on a phone call or text, but I no it isn't so. I miss you so much. I take comfort in knowing that your suffering is over and now you can just truly rest. We have been through a lot and I cherish every memory good ,bad and the hilarious. Thank you for being My being my "Buttercup" ,"Ride or Die' My Bestie". I will never forget you always cherish you and keep you close in my heart.. forever friends/sister and forever love!
