“ My deepest sympathy to everyone in Denise's family. I've known Denise since she was just a little girl. I lived up the street on Horseshoe Drive. I would go to their house and play with Danny and other neighborhood kids. Denise was a good little girl who grew to be a fine lovely lady. I last saw her many years ago when I was the mail carrier when she lived on Roseview Drive. Talked to her for a few minutes then about Horseshoe memories and about Litton and about getting older and how the years from Horseshoe Drive had passed so quickly. As far as I was concerned she was still a sweet, charming young lady. I know her family will miss her greatly and may God bless you all in the days ahead.

“ I remember the first time I met you Dicky brought you over one night and you was the most beautiful woman I ever seen. You sat down with me I was about 8 years old and you played a game with me. You were soft spoken and so kind, and our family was so load but we didn't scare you off.LOL You became my big sister and my sister-n-law you have been in my life ever since. You were always there for mom and dad and all of us, when we lots Dicky we never lost touch. I promise you I will always be there for Kelly and Angie and your grandkids they can count on me. I want to thank Dale for coming into your life at a time when you needed someone to be there for you. I love you and I'll miss you always and forever. Happy Heavenly Birthday.

“ I first met Denise on a very special time in my life... the wedding of her and Dickies' very kind and beautiful daughter, Kelly to our eldest son, Andrew. My wife Nancy and I felt immediately comfortable around them both because we all four shared a strong, unfettered dedication to family and home. That comfort and friendship only grew over the many years since. My only regret is probably common to all of us who were privileged to share life with Denise... we just did not get together often enough.

I feel inadequate to even begin to pay sufficient tribute to such a kind, giving and humble lady as Denise, so allow me to close with one of my most pleasant memories. In the early years of Kelly and Andy's marriage, we were so happy to have Denise and Dickie join us for Thanksgiving. It was the Friday following Thanksgiving that we decided to ease off the heavy Thanksgiving fare and just have a big pot of vegetable-beef soup with hot cornbread on the side. Well... after I watched Denise enjoy two large bowls as I did, even though I was twice her size, and she even crumpled up her cornbread as I always do, I knew beyond a shadow of a doubt she was "one of us", a true friend for life.

Even though we repeated that joyous occasion a few times afterwards, a thousand times would never have been enough... to sit and enjoy such a simple delicacy with a true friend and Sister in Christ. For the remainder of my life, each time I prepare, partake of or even smell cornbread, we will remember, cherish and rejoice in her life.

God Speed, Denise, to be home with the Saints
