

Gary Worth Cashmere

June 26, 1950 - June 29, 2017

Gary Worth Cashmere, of LaVergne, TN, peacefully passed away, at approximately 1:30 to join his wife, Joan, on Thursday, June 29, three days following his 67th birthday. At that time, Gary was under the care and supervision of Hospice, at the Waters of Smyrna, Tennessee. .

Gary was born on June 26, 1950 in Willoughby, Ohio. He is preceded in death by his parents, Eugenia and Harold Cashmere, and by his wife, Myra Joan, who passed away January 12, 2011 at age 57. Gary is now survived by 3 siblings, brother, Drew (Karen) Cashmere, Ft. Lauderdale, FL, half sister, Melody Cashmere, Cleveland, OH, and sister, Fawn (Timothy) Borger, Sugarland, TX.

Gary and Joan were married 25 years prior to her death in 2011. They had no children, but both enjoyed caring for a variety of animals, mostly strays, including cats, ferrets, and a chinchilla. Gary enjoyed visiting civil war battlefields and taking historic cemetery tours, along with Joan. He also made a few trips to Fall Creek Falls, in Spencer, Tennessee, along with Joan, since this was one of their treasured places to visit regularly. Gary enjoyed attending family celebrations and holiday meals, with Joan, at the home of his sister in law, Sandra K. Sanders.

A memorial service will be conducted for Gary at Parkway Baptist Church, 505 Cunniff Parkway, Goodlettsville, TN on July 14th at 11:00 a.m. with visitation 1 hour prior, Rev. Ken Castleberry officiating. Phillips-Robinson Funeral Home (615)262-3312.

Comments

“ To the family please accept my condolences in the lost of your dear love one. May the memories you once shared bring comfort to your heart along with the wonderful promises from God that soon Death and pain will be no more. Revelation 21:3,4)

Carrie - July 12, 2017 at 05:34 PM