“ Russell was a great friend, caring and giving and one of the closest people in my 71 years of life. We were raised together in the same neighborhood and his family was as close as my own.

He stood by me in the hard times of my life as did I during his family's many deaths and tragedies.

His mother Jean and my mother were interested in sky diving. Ironically they both died a week apart of breast cancer in 1971.

Russell I'll miss you...thanks for all you and your family have done for me and my loved ones.

I'll continue to pray for your family.

Not good by...but...see you later my friend.

“ My favorite memory is Russ and Cheryl allowing me to have my 16th birthday party at their house. We all thought their house was amazing. I remember dancing with him and my friends. I am praying for Scarlett and the rest of the family.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing him and his wonderful family for many years, starting at the Cadillac dealership. Always remembering the liquor store when i think of him and the forethought he and Jimmy had of what Fairview was to become. He was a true southern gentleman, just like his Dad, whom i know he is with now. My prayers to the family.

“ Probably my favorite memory of Uncle Russell was when he took me to my first rock concert, Marshall Tucker Band at Municipal Auditorium in Nashville. Missy, me and Sheila - I think, went with him and Cheryl. Just a little while in we were crying to leave because it was SO LOUD! I am still unsure if it was his idea to take us to the movies to see Benji the next weekend to make it up to us, but he gets the credit anyway! Love you Uncle Russell!

“ I remember that night so well. I thought it was you and I. It was awful. I have never forgot that night.
