“ Keitha Thompson lit a candle in memory of James Monroe Lawson Jr.

“ Jim was such a sweetheart. He loved music so much and shared albums with me. Another beautiful memory I had was when I told him I was getting a kitten and was worried about my grown cat wouldn't get enough love. He said your love will grow. That's what love does. I never forgot it. A beautiful loving man who dearly loved his Joan and Emma. He will be missed.

“ Fine brothers-in-law of Jim's quality are hard to find. I will always remember his gracious hospitality on my trip to Tennessee to meet Kathy's family. I treasure his friendship of these many years, especially our political discussions. It was so good to always have a fellow traveler on our "journey of reform". Jim I pledge: Illegitimi non carborundum! You will be missed.
