“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your recent loss. My heart goes out to you and your family. I have always received comfort from the Bible's word at Philippians 4:7 which reads "and the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your heart and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus";

I hope you can receive comfort from these words as well. Margo Simmons

“ Dear Family,
I send you my deepest sympathy. Although I do not know you personally, I do know the pain of losing someone. Be assured that our Loving Heavenly Father is aware of your loss and it saddens Him, too. At Isa. 25:8, "He promises that he is going to swallow up death forever." Job 14:14,15 says that He yearns for the work of His own hands. He has lovingly arranged through His son, Jesus, to bring back to life "all those in the memorial tombs..." (John 5:28,29). I hope that reflecting on this precious promise from God will soothe your broken hearts and give you the strength you need at this most difficult time. For more information please visit jw.org.

To the Family

May God provide you with comfort during this grievous time. Be assured that one day soon God will do away with death forever. 1 Corinthians 15:26.

I am so sorry for your loss. I know no words can help at this time. Please know that the "God of all comfort"(2 Corinthians 1:3,4) sees your pain and longs to do something about it. I personally have found comfort from the words at Revelation 21:3,4 and John 5:28,29. I hope that these scriptures can bring you some measure of comfort during this very difficult time.

Deepest sympathy
