“ Mandy rode with us to SC in July. We divided the drive up into two days. Mandy was delightful and we enjoyed her sense of humor. I will forever remember our time with her. We love you Mandy. Aunt Georgia and Uncle Rich

“ Mandy loved to fish. Often she would challenge you to a contest while fishing. However, Mandy did not like to lose, so she would change the rules if she was behind. We would start with the biggest fish. Then, she would go to the most fish or best type of fish, like a trump card. Then you would have to fish until she was a head, then she would abruptly announce the tournament complete and laugh. I'll miss fishing with her.
