

Opal C. Sacchinelli

April 21, 1923 - May 2, 2020

Opal C. Sacchinelli, Age 97 of Nashville, passed away May 2, 2020.

She is preceded in death by her first husband, Raymond Gregory; second husband, G.D. Sacchinelli; daughter, Billie Blansett; grandson, Greg Williams; 1 brother and 3 sisters. Survived by her daughters, Joyce (Fred) Lawson and Judy (Don) Minster; brother, J.D. Swindle; sister, Zella Maye Keene; 5 grandchildren and numerous great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

She was a prayer warrior for many, an inspiration, and a living testimony to numerous individuals throughout her years. Her passionate love for Jesus radiated whenever she was present. She was a true southern lady, beautiful inside and out, and a devoted Christian woman.

After she retired from Horace Small Manufacturing, she enjoyed cooking. She was an excellent cake baker and baked them for many friends and family and any special occasion. She was a unique, precious lady and had a gift for making others feel special. She truly loved her church family.

Her daughters would like to thank Alive Hospice for her care, especially Mary Boyd, her nurse, and Christy for their caring attention.

To honor and celebrate her life there will be a memorial service at the Calvary Pentecostal Church at a later time, with Pastor Walter George officiating.

“ Mimaw was a great Christian lady and was the matriarch of our family. Those who knew her knew she had a sense of humor. I always loved our holiday meals at her home, especially eating her dumplings. Every year she would make me a red velvet cake for Christmas. She will be missed

“ In my years of being a church pastor, I don't believe I have witnessed a family do as much for an elderly loved one as this family has done for Sister Opal Sacchinelli. Joyce Ann and Fred Lawson, and Judy and Don Minster you are all to be commended and thanked for the love, kindness, and respect you have shown in so many different ways. May the Lord bless all of you...Pastor Walter George

“ She was truly a lady. For several years she and her husband were a very important part of my family's Thanksgiving traditions and we so enjoyed their company. She made everyone feel like family and will be missed.
