“ Granny, so many memories of my childhood came flooding to mind the last night I came and sat with you. The many many vacations to gulf shores riding in the back of your blue van, me, J.J and Lonnie playing cards while waiting to get there. Getting to sleep in your big bed when papaw was away, I was your little sidekick and always had to go everywhere with you. Going to the auctions, All the times you would take me to the skating rink on Friday and Saturday night, every day of every summer everyone piling in the station wagon and going to the lake, going yard sales on the weekends, going and picking strawberries every summer, you giving me perms or rolling my hair in rollers at night because you did yours and i wanted mine done too, watching you cook always, I could go on and on with all the wonderful memories I have with you. You raised me well granny & taught me how to cook, taught me to have morals, to carry myself like a lady, to dress respectfully, I admired you so very much and I always will. Thank you for always being there for me and being such a strong woman and role model.

I love you always,
Your granddaughter, Casey
