“ I did not know Sara really well but she said a beautiful rosary on Saturday before mass and always had a kind word and a beautiful smile for me. She was a loving person. She will be missed so much.

“ Sara was one of the ladies who helped getting me back into the church After 40 years. She was a driving force in getting my wife Dean to become a Catholic. She was also Dean's sponsor for Confirmation. God Bless you Sara.

“ Miss Sara was a beautiful sweet lady and the time that I got to know her she always helped me see the positives in everything. I will never forget when she was there for during the hardest part of my life last year when I lost my daughter. I will hold her memory close to my heart . And cherish the blanket she made for my daughter . I love you and we will see each other again soon . Heaven gained another beautiful angel.

“ Sarah was a great person and leader. The first thing that comes to mind when I remember Sarah was how she made me feel. She made me feel good about myself and sometimes made me laugh. There was never a dull moment with her. We volunteered together at the room at the inn where the homeless got a taste of her great cooking and when I joined the legion she welcomed me with open arms and also welcomed my mom when she was visiting. She will be greatly missed.

“ Sara and her Legion of Mary welcomed my son Joseph and me at St. Joseph's and made us feel at home. She led the Saturday meetings with a holy and happy ambience, feeding us with her gourmet pastries and great coffee. She was 75 years old? I don't know why but maybe because she was still at work when I left TN in July 2019, I thought that she was only 67! My, she carried herself well, didn't she?

I never learned to make a rosary; I did not take any craft lesson. BUT Sara gifted me with whatever items I needed. She had a heart of gold. When Joseph died in February last year, Sara shared my grief.

I know Sara and I believe that if we could hear her now, this is what she wants of us:

Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep
By Mary Elizabeth Frye

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.

Sara and I are closer friends now more than ever. Time and distance have been traversed!
