

Sean Allen Stokely-Schroeder

May 6, 1994 - April 5, 2020

On Sunday April 5th 2020 Sean Allen Stokely-Schroeder was called home to heaven at the age of 25. Sean was born May 6th 1994 in Denver, Colorado. From a young age he took on the role of a protector of his siblings and this grew into the loving and protective son, husband and father. He graduated from Falcon High School in 2012. Sean spent most of his life in Colorado where he loved hiking, camping and skiing in the mountains. After High School Sean worked several back breaking jobs like landscaping, construction and slinging shingles where he excelled with his amazing work ethic. Sean always loved cars and trucks. He never met a car he couldn't break but those skills were a natural fit with his job as a boom operator. Sean and his wife Katie moved to Clarksville, Tennessee in 2019 where he worked in construction as a concrete boom truck operator. He took great pride in operating the largest vehicles to build the tallest building in the city. Sean was funny and adventurous. He always had to do things his own way. He loved with all his heart and brought joy, tears, stress and happiness to all those who loved him.

He is survived by his wife Katie Blossmo and his two sons Logan and Landon. He is also survived by his parents Jeff and Melissa Schroeder of Germany, his siblings Nichole Pulver (Neil) of Hawaii, Stephanie Gearhard of Colorado, Derek Berthrong of Colorado, Emily Matthews (Greg) of Colorado, Chanse Mills of Colorado, Jessica Hanlon of Colorado, Kaitlynn Pulver of Hawaii, Saraphina Schroeder of Germany and Skyeler Schroeder of Germany. Grandparents Herbert and Ruthann Schroeder of Texas and John and Mary Lou Mansur of Idaho. A large extended family of 5 Aunts, 3 Uncles, numerous cousins and other family and friends that loved him deeply.

A memorial fund will be established for his children and shared with everyone in the future.

Sean will forever be in our hearts...

In light of the current state of emergency and CDC guidelines, and to exercise and abundance of caution, the family will be holding a private service.

Little brother,

You were my sounding board for so many things and a voice of reason when life was unreasonable. I am lost without knowing that you will be on the other end of those phone calls. You were my partner in crime sometimes, my assistant trickster at others, and my brother always. When you were born I was less than excited to have a baby brother, but as soon as I held you in my arms I fell in love and you were my little one to protect, to play with, to assist, and to adore. The world has lost a very bright light without you in it. I love you Sean Stokely-Schroeder.

“ Big brother, I’m not quite sure what this world is without you but I know that it is so much darker. You had such a light about you. You were kind to everyone, the most forgiving person I have ever known and the worlds best big brother, Dad, son, friend and so many other things to so many people. You have been my rock my whole life so I’m not sure how to go on without you. Brother doesn’t even begin to describe who you were to me. People often ask how I turned out to be so strong and “normal” and my answer is always you. My protector, my role model, my light in the darkness, my one constant in our otherwise unstable world. When most people thought of heroes, most thought about celebrities, fictional/historical characters or their parents but I always thought of you. At such a young age you stepped up when we had no one else and protected us and showed us unconditional love. Through all life threw at us you always kept a smile on your face and always made sure all your sisters were smiling too. I would not be the woman I am today without you and I’m not sure how to go on from here but I will try my best to learn from your kindness, your love of life, and your unbelievable forgiveness towards anyone no matter how much they hurt you. I know God needed the strongest person he could find when he called you home and I know I will see again. Until then, I will find you in your sons smiles, the sun shining, the snow falling and so many other things. I know you’re watching over us and protecting us just like you did when you were here. If I had known our last conversation was our last I would have told you thank you for getting us through and that I am so proud of the Dad, brother, husband, and son you were and that I love you more than you’ll ever know. I will forever cherish the laughs we shared, your safe hugs, your silliness, your big smile, contagious laugh and all the memories we made together. I love you forever and I’ll see you soon big brother.
