“ Kay-you had a back made strong by hard work, talented hands that created beautiful keepsakes, a heart full of love, and a head full of mischief. You are missed, my friend.

“ Happy birthday mom. I spent part of the day today at work going through all our text messages and emails today. I miss you so much. I'm so grateful you came into our lives when you did. I know being a stepmother is one of the hardest jobs to take on especially with 2 very young children and you were always there for us. I know we made it hard for you when we were teenagers but I understood when I got older that you were just preparing us for the real world when we got older. Even after you and dad separated you were always there for me to talk to when I needed someone to talk to. You may have been my stepmother but I always thought of you and called you mom and always will. Lucy is doing good but I know she misses you too. I'm glad I got to tell you how much I appreciated everything you did for me and dad. Love you, Keith

“ Happy Birthday today my friend; you never wanted to make a big deal out of your birthday, so we decided to wait until 3 days later to do your life celebration and celebrate you, we will! Your presence and spirit is sorely missed and you are so loved; it's hard to comprehend how much you are missed - but we know that this birthday is all about YOU celebrating in Heaven!!! Love you!!!
