

William "Bill" Cecil Anderton

November 1, 1932 - December 23, 2017

ANDERTON, William "Bill" Cecil, Age 85 of Nashville, passed away Dec. 23, 2017

He is preceded in death by his parents, W. Horace & Emerald Anderton; sisters, Jewel Casey & Edna Sue Roberts.

Survived by his wife of 61 years, Mona Sue Anderton; sons, Bill (Kathy) Anderton Jr. & Mark (Vicki) Anderton; brother, Barry (Marilyn) Anderton; grandchildren, Kaitlin "Katie", Jessica, Kayla Marie, Kelli, Kyle & Payton; Loving pet, Isis.

He graduated from East High School in '51, was employed by Metro Parks for 44 years & a Deacon of Dalewood Baptist Church.

Visitation will be at Phillips-Robinson Funeral Home, 2707 Gallatin Rd., on Thurs., Dec. 28, from 5-8pm and on Fri., Dec. 29, from 11-12pm at Eastland Baptist Church, 1215 Gallatin Rd. with the service at 12pm in their chapel.

Interment Immediately following at Woodlawn Memorial Park.

Donations in his name may be made to fundraisers.hakuapp.com/katie-anderton-2

PHILLIPS-ROBINSON FUNERAL HOME, (615)262-3312.

Comments

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your recent loss. My heart goes out to you and your family. I have always received comfort from the Bibles' word at Philippians 4:7 which reads “and the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your heart and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus”.
I hope you can receive comfort from these words as well. Margo Simmons

MS - December 31, 2017 at 11:09 AM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Anderton. The Bible provides much hope and comfort and talks about a time when death will be gone forever. (Revelation 21:4) May the wonderful memories of your loved one sustain you until God's promises are fulfilled. (John 6:40)

M Martin - December 29, 2017 at 04:31 AM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible provides much hope and comfort and talks about a time when death will be gone forever. (Revelation 21:4) May the wonderful memories of your loved one sustain you until God's promises are fulfilled. (John 6:40)

M Martin - December 29, 2017 at 04:30 AM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Anderton. The Bible provides much hope and comfort and talks about a time when death will be gone forever. (Revelation 21:4) May the wonderful memories of your loved one sustain you until God's promises are fulfilled. (John 6:40)

M Martin - December 29, 2017 at 04:29 AM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Anderton. The Bible provides much hope and comfort and talks about a time when death will be gone forever. (Revelation 21:4) May the wonderful memories of your loved one sustain you until God's promises are fulfilled. (John 6:40)

M Martin - December 29, 2017 at 04:29 AM

“ My Prayers and Thoughts are with you.

Aaron Milliken - December 28, 2017 at 11:28 AM

“ To the Anderton Family

We are deeply sadden. To hear about the passing of William Anderton. Our personal thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. When troublesome times of this nature arrive, there is a great need to receive words of strong comfort from the family and friends. Yes we have lost someone who was special to us. I know that all will be there for you. We must also remember that God will be there for us also. The scriptures reveals God as the source of tender comfort and mercy. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) So notice the comforting words that God shares with all grieving hearts today who have lost someone in death. God assures what that He has the ability and the desire to reverse the effects of death. He states that soon He would call to those in the grave, and that they would hear His voice and stand up in life again.(John 5:28-29). Did you notice that He call to our love ones by name, and that they respond to His calling. This text shows that William is in God's memory. That He is not forgotten by God. This text also serves as a personal guarantee from God the resurrection arrangement will certainly take place. That William, and billions of others will have their lives restored back to them. These are God's words to all grieving hearts, not my words. To have all to have strong faith in God's words, He has preserved nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing to take place earth wide. Here is just one such example recorded at John 11:32-44. I would now like to take this time to encourage all to take the time to read the account. Yes see how the verses apply to Williams, and to others who has fallen asleep in death. May all continue to all the scriptures to provide your grieving hearts with true comfort. Remember that we have God's personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)

Albert Caldwell Jr - December 26, 2017 at 07:39 AM

“ To the Anderton Family

We are deeply sadden. To hear about the passing of William Anderton. Our personal thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. When troublesome times of this nature arrive, there is a great need to receive words of strong comfort from the family and friends. Yes we have lost someone who was special to us. I know that all will be there for you. We must also remember that God will be there for us also. The scriptures reveals God as the source of tender comfort and mercy. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) So notice the comforting words that God shares with all grieving hearts today who have lost someone in death. God assures what that He has the ability and the desire to reverse the effects of death. He states that soon He would call to those in the grave, and that they would hear His voice and stand up in life again.(John 5:28-29). Did you notice that He call to our love ones by name, and that they respond to His calling. This text shows that William is in God's memory. That He is not forgotten by God. This text also serves as a personal guarantee from God the resurrection arrangement will certainly take place. That William, and billions of others will have their lives restored back to them. These are God's words to all grieving hearts, not my words. To have all to have strong faith in God's words, He has preserved nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing to take place earth wide. Here is just one such example recorded at John 11:32-44. I would now like to take this time to encourage all to take the time to read the account. Yes see how the verses apply to Williams, and to others who has fallen asleep in death. May all continue to all the scriptures to provide your grieving hearts with true comfort. Remember that we have God's personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)

Albert Caldwell Jr - December 26, 2017 at 07:38 AM

“ To the Anderton Family

We are deeply sadden. To hear about the passing of William Anderton. Our personal thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. When troublesome times of this nature arrive, there is a great need to receive words of strong comfort from the family and friends. Yes we have lost someone who was special to us. I know that all will be there for you. We must also remember that God will be there for us also. The scriptures reveals God as the source of tender comfort and mercy. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) So notice the comforting words that God shares with all grieving hearts today who have lost someone in death. God assures what that He has the ability and the desire to reverse the effects of death. He states that soon He would call to those in the grave, and that they would hear His voice and stand up in life again.(John 5:28-29). Did you notice that He call to our love ones by name, and that they respond to His calling. This text shows that William is in God's memory. That He is not forgotten by God. This text also serves as a personal guarantee from God the resurrection arrangement will certainly take place. That William, and billions of others will have their lives restored back to them. These are God's words to all grieving hearts, not my words. To have all to have strong faith in God's words, He has preserved nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing to take place earth wide. Here is just one such example recorded at John 11:32-44. I would now like to take this time to encourage all to take the time to read the account. Yes see how the verses apply to Williams, and to others who has fallen asleep in death. May all continue to all the scriptures to provide your grieving hearts with true comfort. Remember that we have God's personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)

Albert Caldwell Jrw - December 26, 2017 at 07:37 AM

“ To the Anderton Family

We are deeply sadden. To hear about the passing of William Anderton. Our personal thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. When troublesome times of this nature arrive, there is a great need to receive words of strong comfort from the family and friends. Yes we have lost someone who was special to us. I know that all will be there for you. We must also remember that God will be there for us also. The scriptures reveals God as the source of tender comfort and mercy. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) So notice the comforting words that God shares with all grieving hearts today who have lost someone in death. God assures what that He has the ability and the desire to reverse the effects of death. He states that soon He would call to those in the grave, and that they would hear His voice and stand up in life again.(John 5:28-29). Did you notice that He call to our love ones by name, and that they respond to His calling. This text shows that William is in God's memory. That He is not forgotten by God. This text also serves as a personal guarantee from God the resurrection arrangement will certainly take place. That William, and billions of others will have their lives restored back to them. These are God's words to all grieving hearts, not my words. To have all to have strong faith in God's words, He has preserved nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing to take place earth wide. Here is just one such example recorded at John 11:32-44. I would now like to take this time to encourage all to take the time to read the account. Yes see how the verses apply to Williams, and to others who has fallen asleep in death. May all continue to all the scriptures to provide your grieving hearts with true comfort. Remember that we have God's personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)

Albert Caldwell Jrw - December 26, 2017 at 07:37 AM

“ To the Anderton Family

We are deeply sadden. To hear about the passing of William Anderton. Our personal thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. When troublesome times of this nature arrive, there is a great need to receive words of strong comfort from the family and friends. Yes we have lost someone who was special to us. I know that all will be there for you. We must also remember that God will be there for us also. The scriptures reveals God as the source of tender comfort and mercy. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) So notice the comforting words that God shares with all grieving hearts today who have lost someone in death. God assures what that He has the ability and the desire to reverse the effects of death. He states that soon He would call to those in the grave, and that they would hear His voice and stand up in life again.(John 5:28-29). Did you notice that He call to our love ones by name, and that they respond to His calling. This text shows that William is in God's memory. That He is not forgotten by God. This text also serves as a personal guarantee from God the resurrection arrangement will certainly take place. That William, and billions of others will have their lives restored back to them. These are God's words to all grieving hearts, not my words. To have all to have strong faith in God's words, He has preserved nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing to take place earth wide. Here is just one such example recorded at John 11:32-44. I would now like to take this time to encourage all to take the time to read the account. Yes see how the verses apply to Williams, and to others who has fallen asleep in death. May all continue to all the scriptures to provide your grieving hearts with true comfort. Remember that we have God's personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)

“ To the Anderton Family

We are deeply sadden. To hear about the passing of William Anderton. Our personal thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. When troublesome times of this nature arrive, there is a great need to receive words of strong comfort from the family and friends. Yes we have lost someone who was special to us. I know that all will be there for you. We must also remember that God will be there for us also. The scriptures reveals God as the source of tender comfort and mercy. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) So notice the comforting words that God shares with all grieving hearts today who have lost someone in death. God assures what that He has the ability and the desire to reverse the effects of death. He states that soon He would call to those in the grave, and that they would hear His voice and stand up in life again.(John 5:28-29). Did you notice that He call to our love ones by name, and that they respond to His calling. This text shows that William is in God's memory. That He is not forgotten by God. This text also serves as a personal guarantee from God the resurrection arrangement will certainly take place. That William, and billions of others will have their lives restored back to them. These are God's words to all grieving hearts, not my words. To have all to have strong faith in God's words, He has preserved nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing to take place earth wide. Here is just one such example recorded at John 11:32-44. I would now like to take this time to encourage all to take the time to read the account. Yes see how the verses apply to Williams, and to others who has fallen asleep in death. May all continue to all the scriptures to provide your grieving hearts with true comfort. Remember that we have God's personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)

“ To the Anderton Family

We are deeply sadden. To hear about the passing of William Anderton. Our personal thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. When troublesome times of this nature arrive, there is a great need to receive words of strong comfort from the family and friends. Yes we have lost someone who was special to us. I know that all will be there for you. We must also remember that God will be there for us also. The scriptures reveals God as the source of tender comfort and mercy. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) So notice the comforting words that God shares with all grieving hearts today who have lost someone in death. God assures what that He has the ability and the desire to reverse the effects of death. He states that soon He would call to those in the grave, and that they would hear His voice and stand up in life again.(John 5:28-29). Did you notice that He call to our love ones by name, and that they respond to His calling. This text shows that William is in God's memory. That He is not forgotten by God. This text also serves as a personal guarantee from God the resurrection arrangement will certainly take place. That William, and billions of others will have their lives restored back to them. These are God's words to all grieving hearts, not my words. To have all to have strong faith in God's words, He has preserved nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing to take place earth wide. Here is just one such example recorded at John 11:32-44. I would now like to take this time to encourage all to take the time to read the account. Yes see how the verses apply to Williams, and to others who has fallen asleep in death. May all continue to all the scriptures to provide your grieving hearts with true comfort. Remember that we have God's personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)

Albert Caldwell Jr - December 26, 2017 at 07:37 AM

“ To the Anderton Family

We are deeply sadden. To hear about the passing of William Anderton. Our personal thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. When troublesome times of this nature arrive, there is a great need to receive words of strong comfort from the family and friends. Yes we have lost someone who was special to us. I know that all will be there for you. We must also remember that God will be there for us also. The scriptures reveals God as the source of tender comfort and mercy. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) So notice the comforting words that God shares with all grieving hearts today who have lost someone in death. God assures what that He has the ability and the desire to reverse the effects of death. He states that soon He would call to those in the grave, and that they would hear His voice and stand up in life again.(John 5:28-29). Did you notice that He call to our love ones by name, and that they respond to His calling. This text shows that William is in God's memory. That He is not forgotten by God. This text also serves as a personal guarantee from God the resurrection arrangement will certainly take place. That William, and billions of others will have their lives restored back to them. These are God's words to all grieving hearts, not my words. To have all to have strong faith in God's words, He has preserved nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing to take place earth wide. Here is just one such example recorded at John 11:32-44. I would now like to take this time to encourage all to take the time to read the account. Yes see how the verses apply to Williams, and to others who has fallen asleep in death. May all continue to all the scriptures to provide your grieving hearts with true comfort. Remember that we have God's personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)

Albert Caldwell Jr - December 26, 2017 at 07:37 AM

“ We extend our sincere heartfelt condolences to Bill's family. In this sad time May you be strengthened by God's promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones, who have fallen asleep in death, by means of a resurrection and death will be no more. - Revelation 21:3,4; John 6:40 What a wonderful day this will be! Then 85 years will only be few. May this precious hope that awaits us and your cherished memories of Bill bring you a measure of comfort now and in the days ahead.

