“ I miss my friend Alan. He and I were next door neighbors for many years until he moved to Nashville to be near his son Chris. Even then we talked on the phone often. We always had each other's back and knew we could count on each other in any situation. I'll never forget Alan's kindness and his love for God and his family. R.I.P. my friend ❤️

I met Alan many years ago when he moved in next door to my sister in Olive Branch. He was the best neighbor anyone could have. She missed him terribly when his health required him to move to Nashville. We're still trying to process his passing. Alan was witty, set in his ways, and a die-hard Alabama football fan. Gone too soon. We miss you! 😞
