“ What can I say about Alex that you don't already know- such a kind and generous soul who helped me whenever I needed him! He always had a great big smile for me whenever I saw him. Alex was easy to love and talk too, and I know he is being showered with love and laughter and talks in heaven as he was on earth- but much more in heaven!

I hate the pain and loss that his family and close friends are feeling that will never go away! Bill and Elisha, my heart cries for you both and I pray you find comfort in knowing that Alex is no longer suffering here on earth but now has an everlasting spiritual body that will never grow old, get sick or die ever again!

Alex, you are missed, my bud! Enjoy heaven!!!
