“ Jeri, As a sister myself I know how much you have lost but you have been the most wonderful sister in the world to her. Take care and know you have many friends thinking of you and praying for you today and in the days to come. May your family have peace knowing she is now in another loving hand.

“ *Jeri;
Today I know you are sad and your heart is heavy due to the loss of your sister. I want to share with you that you are not alone in that I want to encourage you to know we care about you and want to remind you Christ loves you too so much that He gave HIS life for your life that you might have and know life beyond the grave. I personally want you to know today I will be praying through this day for you and your family to have strength to go through this day of sorrow and come out on the other side with a day of good Memories. Every time today you feel sad just breath His name J_E_S_U_S. He will meet you right where you are and give you the strength you need. Our love and prayer is with you during this time..Lester Hale*
