“ I am another "cuz" who spent wonderful summers in Armstrong Mills. Jack always had some kind of project going i.e. making mousetraps or catching those awful hellgrammites in the creek and then going fishing. When that got boring we made slides in the upstairs of the warehouse and came close to breaking our necks. I don't know how Aunt Bron kept her patience with some of our goofy activities. One very cold and snowy Sunday afternoon Jack took me with him to check his traps and I nearly froze. But no matter the temperature I would have followed him anywhere.

I am blessed to have had this dear and special person in my life and will always treasure the happy memories he has left for me.

*With deepest sympathy,
Love,
Janet*

“ I have so many happy childhood memories with my cousin Jack. My sister Doreen and I spent several weeks each summer in Armstrong Mills. We even walked to Aldonia to see a movie and then walked home in the dark. A little scary but Jack would take care of us. I know you will miss him but try to focus on the happy memories of and with him.

"Tickey" Jack as my younger bother, Chad, used to call him because he would always tickle Chad when he visited will be dearly missed. Uncle Jack was a special person with his big strong hugs, wonderful smile and great stories of growing up in Armstrong Mills, Ohio.

There will come a day when we will meet again in a wonderful place.

“ Sorry to hear about your dad, we are thinking of you. His visits to Powhatan will be missed. Jack and Ronnie always spent a day reliving their youth in Armstrongs. Ronnie always tells how Jack taught him to trap. When Ronnie caught his mink, he saved it till Jack came home from working away to skin it for him. Jack was an outstanding athlete in high school and college, he enjoyed playing softball with all the Armstrong gang. Other than Bill Smith, he was the best, Smitty was always just a half step faster. Sorry we won't be with you on Wed. but our thoughts and prayer are with all of you.
