“ Dear Sweet Amy. I remember when you were a little girl so full of life. I will always remember the laughter when we would come and visit your Daddy and Mama. My heart breaks for the family left behind because for them it's hard for everyone to let you go, but for you ,your in a better place than we can imagine. I pray that they are filled with peace just knowing that your in the arms of the angels. You have your Aunt Sue ,Your Uncle Bill, your grandparents Pappa Bill and Nanny Bertilu, they will take care of you and show you around in that beautiful place. Rejoice in you new home. R.I.P. my dear one. I will see you again one day.
God Blesses those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Matthew 5:4
