“ Andrea was one of the kindest ladies I’ve known! Always smiling and laughing! The one thing I know for sure....she loved her 3 boys and they loved her! She was a strong and resilient lady with a heart for others. Her nature was always a champion for the “underdog “! If she saw a need, she would meet it. I will miss Andrea and will smile often over her funny way of telling a story, so many starting with “Oh hell”! And I will always honor her son, Stephen, who is my son-in-law! He is so special, with much of her character! My heartfelt condolences to all her family with a special hug for Roy!
