“ Anna was the first person to put me into the catering realm. She didn't ask me. She put me in the position that I still work in today. She knew what I needed and how I could serve best in this business and world. I have lots of stories I could share and some are more present in my mind than others, but they were all fun, filled with laughter, knowing, familiarity, and love. I am still in such disbelief. No one could say "Honey" with 3 syllables like she could. I can hear it in my head. I always hear it in my head and will and feel wrapped in the same caring and love just the way she meant it.

“ You added light and sparkle to the world like no other. I will miss you every day for the rest of my life sweet sister. I will keep trying to "lasso the moon" as you told me to do. I love you, honey.

Our lives will never be the same. You were such a great friend, sister and mother. I had the pleasure to have known you for 50 years. You made all of our special events more special. I will miss you everyday.

I met Anna at Aunt Connie's house a long time ago! I am Emery's wife, but I was his girlfriend at the time. Anna was the first to say hello to me and as you all know once you walked in the door the family made you feel so welcome and instantly part of the love. Everyone had a super talent and I clearly needed to get a hobby and be good at something if I was going to make it in this family - Anna told me just to stick with her. I loved sitting around the table talking with everyone and the food!!!. Anna had my kind of sense of humor - wicked funny! I hate that we did not all visit or see each other that much, but that made me cling to Facebook. I just got to see a glimpse of her life and in the past few years I think there is a reason that sweet Anna posted so much. I will never look at a shoe, dress, teacup, Christmas or snow and not think of her. I hope you constantly see, feel and hear the signs of her love and know that you are all in our prayers!

“ I knew sweet Anna all my life. We grew up in church together. She was a beautiful soul inside and out. I have loved her and her family a very long time! She has now joined her Dad Li Richie, her mom Connie and her brother Jason. Her birthday was the day after mine same year. She was a great cook and very fashionable. She could rock anything she wore! The last time I saw her before she passed was at our church for candle light service and she had her 2 beautiful children with her as well as her lovely sister Lori. I will miss you so much Anna till Heaven rings those golden bells for me and we'll be reunited again! 💙

“ I knew Anna when she was a little girl when her whole family--"The Jarvis Family" which consisted of Connie & Richard Aka "Little Richey" , Lori , Anna & Jason was part of our Church Family At Faith Methodist ! Now Anna is reunited with All of her family that were a part of Faith except Lori. Believe me Lori , I know exactly how you feel when All your family are in heaven ! Out of my original family of my childhood , I am the only one left .So if you ever need someone to talk to--Call me--I really mean it ! I will try to message you my phone number. Your dad is one of only 5 people I call "My Best Friends". When we see each other in person I will name the other four for you. You are in our prayers and will continue to be in my prayers till one of us pass from this world. Another of my "5" best friends told me we will be friends through eternity ! I believe that and our love for each other last through eternity. So you and I will think it's only moments have passed when we get to heaven if we live to be 100 ! So I hope you can feel our love as GOD wraps his arms around you and you feel the Love & Peace that pass all understanding that only GOD can give .Please give our Love to Anna's Children and other family members. We were never lucky enough to get to know them as we just briefly met.

“ I worked with Anna @ Maxwell House Hotel & enjoyed her “Southern Mama” attitude. We had many good laughs together & shared a lot of stories. She was a beautifully unique & genuine person who loved her children and family more than anything in the world. God bless Anna & rest her soul.

“ Anna was the kindest sweetest person. I am honored to call her my cousin. I will miss her laugh and that ornery look she would get. I know that no words can express the loss you feel but please know you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Tommy and Janae if you ever need anything please know I am here. Your Momma was so proud of you both “ Anna became family for me when I moved to Gallatin and worked at the River hate theater. She was part of a group of women who welcomed me into their fold and loved me. I had just recently reconnected with some of them and was really looking forward to being hugged by Anna again. I'm grateful for having reconnected. I was able to tell her how grateful I was for the feeling of family that "Our Anna" never failed to give to anyone.
