“ I am so sorry for your loss, Kim and Charisse. I enjoyed spending time with Audrey, admiring her roses and the flowers on her porch, hearing stories about beautiful Clinton, knowing of her love for her family. She will be missed. The neighborhood here in Nashville has not been the same without her. Many condolences.

“ When I saw the news of Audrey’s passing I was filled with 25 years of memories. Laughs. Smiles. Music. Every memory priceless. She shared so many stories with me and introduced so many people as well, she knew everybody. She had a gift of making you feel so special. We were so proud to be her Friends from Nova Scotia. Because of Audrey I got to meet many musical hero’s and especially Merle Haggard here in Nova Scotia. His first words as he was getting of his bus “How do you know Audrey”. Nancy and I will miss you forever. Love you Audrey.
