“ The Schlaile family (Antonja, Tina, Tanja, & Tim) were saddened to hear of Barbara's passing. We met her at the Shaw Street CofC after our family moved to Pasadena in 1959 and knew her to be a cheerful, kind, and loving person. I know that my parents, Antonja and Erich, counted Barbara and Lawrence as two of their very best life-long friends. Our condolences to the entire Hazelip family.

“ What precious memories...the love that Barbara and Lawrence ALWAYS showed us was beyond belief. She treated me as her daughter when my own mother went home to be with God. The encouragement, the happiness, her servant heart and compassion, but most of all her love of God and EVERYONE influenced me greatly. Talking with her was such a joy.

Don and I were blessed to be married by Lawrence on their wedding anniversary. That was and always will be a special bond. I can only imagine how happy a place Heaven must be with all of them there with Jesus! What a time to look forward to!

Love always,

The Livelys and Spradlings

We have many, many, cherished memories to remind us what a very special Christian she was. “ Our life is like a blank canvas and the people we meet along the way place their mark on our life's canvas. I have known Barbara since I was a teenager. She was my bible class teacher and after I was married with children of my own, she taught them. I love and admire her very much. She will be missed by so many. Her life's canvas is completed and she has made it into a masterpiece. My sincere condolences to the Hazelip family!

“ I have wonderful memories of Barbara, some that even go back 50 years. She was such a caring, thoughtful and happy woman. I know Lawrence has been waiting patiently for her and my heart is lifted knowing they are finally together again for an eternity in heaven.

“ I recall the Dorcus class Barbara taught back in the '70's. A wonderful lady that lived a full life. Enjoy heaven with all those you shared the gospel with.
