“ Barbara you will be missed by all. You were love in life and will be missed in death. We would have been there if it was at all possible, you were worth the trip. Are regrets go out to your family that loved you enough to be there with you until the end. To the family and Joe, the absence of some family members is not to be taken personally, they are not worth the time or energy. Your mother would not have wanted that. She loved her children regardless of the choices they make. RIP Barbara, no more pain. We love you all and are here if you need us.

“ *Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear, loved one. Death is hard to deal with. Even Jesus gave way to tears when Lazarus died (John 11:35). But our Heavenly Father views death as an enemy and promises to put an end to it (1 Cor 15:26). We can look forward to being reunited with our loved ones again. “ Joe , you don't know me but Barbara and I hung out when we were kids. I am so sorry I didn't keep in contact. Its been many years since I spoke with her and I always thought highly of her. When she came to her Uncle Louis home we would be together ,telling secrets and just being girls. I will miss her and I pray for peace and comfort for those she left behind . Rest in Peace my dear friend. We will meet again.
