“ I have known Beka since we were both kids. Her sister married my brother and she became family. She had the biggest heart and loved her family. She was so loved by all. A great memory was when she cut my hair in a style she felt I should have. Before she turned me toward the mirror her comment was your going to love it and if you don't, don't come back. I did love it because first of all it is exactly what I asked for. You will be greatly missed. Love Linda
