

Benjamin "Ben" Replogle

June 10, 1974 - April 1, 2025

Benjamin "Ben" Replogle, age 50, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by his family on April 1, 2025, after a long and hard-fought battle with liver disease and cancer.

Born in Jackson, Tennessee, on June 10, 1974. Ben called Nashville home. A hard worker to the very end, Ben was selfless, always ready to help others.

If he couldn't help you himself, you were likely met with his famous phrase, "I know a guy." Ben always thought of others before himself, right up until the very end, putting the needs of those around him before his own. He was known for his love of hosting gatherings, often holding cookouts and he would share his culinary knowledge with friends and family. He had a deep love for good food, Vanderbilt sports, and the close-knit group of friends he considered his chosen family.

Ben is survived by his only child, Sierra Replogle Sherman (Caleb) of Nashville; his loving life partner of many years, Jennifer Owen of Nashville; and his father, Paul Replogle of Medina. He is also survived by many close friends and family who will miss him dearly.

In lieu of flowers, Ben requested that donations be made to your local animal shelter.

“ Ben was a great friend during our times together in our early days. He was a great person to be around and loved traveling with during our low rider days.
