

Betty Ann Hadley

August 26, 1926 - May 19, 2024

Betty Ann Hadley passed away May 19, 2024.

Betty was born August 26, 1926. The daughter of the late Albert Livingston “Bert” and Lois Meguiar Hadley. She was reared at the family homeplace, “Broadmoor” on Gallatin Rd., and graduated from Isaac Litton High School and Peabody College. She then did her graduate work at the University of New Hampshire and U.T. in Nashville. She taught here in Nashville at Amqui Elementary, Goodlettsville High School, and Litton Junior High School as a Home Economics Teacher and Guidance Counselor. After she retired from teaching, she conducted Estate Sales for several years.

Betty was a member and elder at Westminster Presbyterian Church. She was also a member of Centennial Club, Cheekwood and the Ladies Hermitage Association.

She was preceded in death by her only brother, Albert Hadley, of New York City.

She is survived by her two loving care givers, Becky Holbrooks and Clarette Ridley; And her God-daughter, Sarah Fleming.

Visitation will be held on Tuesday, June 11, 2024 at 11:00 a.m. to be followed by a memorial service and inurnment at 12:00 p.m. at Westminster Presbyterian Church, 3900 West End Avenue, Nashville, TN.

Memorials may be made to Cheekwood Botanical Garden or Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Previous Events

Visitation

JUN 11. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (CT)

Westminster Presbyterian Church
3900 West End Avenue
Nashville, TN

Memorial Service

JUN 11. 12:00 PM (CT)

Westminster Presbyterian Church
3900 West End Avenue
Nashville, TN

Tribute Wall

LM

“ She lived next door to my family on Broadmore and Gallatin Rd. Such a nice lady !!

---

Lindsey Miller - May 27, 2024 at 01:19 PM

TJ

“ What a precious sweet soul. I was blessed to call her my friend. Tiny Jones

---

Tiny Jones - May 26, 2024 at 02:25 PM

NL

“ I was honored to know Betty Hadley through Westminster Church. I visited her for many years both in her lovely condo on West End and for many years at Richland Health Care. I loved the stories she would tell about her growing up years, her teaching years, and her love for her parents and brother Albert. She was active at Westminster and there whenever possible. She was a beautiful lady who dealt with her declining years with graciousness. I feel blessed to have known her.

---

Nancy Langdon - May 25, 2024 at 08:49 AM