“ Vickie, Chuck and Marvin...there aren't enough words to tell you all the wonderful memories I have with you all. Our lives went different directions, but I never forgot and I never lost the tremendous love I felt for each of you. Those memories are precious to me and I will always treasure those times. I am so sorry for you all. Sending hugs and love your way. Brenda

“ To a Lady who's smile could light up a room, who's courage.... Indescribable, and who's compassion Contagious!! I will forever cherish all our talks, you getting tinker to smile at me, and times we had together. Thank you for welcoming me into your home these past couple of years!! This is not a battle lost..... You won.... You gained your angel wings. I will miss your smiling face Mrs. Betty more than you know. I take great comfort and joy in knowing I will see you again someday. Til then..... All my love... Prayers for comfort and peace to the whole Thompson family.
