“ My deepest condolences to the family at this difficult time. I hope the words at Rev.21:4 bring you comfort. It says: "God will wipe out every tear from their eyes,and death will be no more,neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ *Ms. Dorothy,
I'm truly sorry for your loss. It's been said that the loss of a loved one to death is one of the severest emotional blows of a persons life. The truths of God's written Word are a great source of comfort, and turning to him in prayer can give you the strength to endure even though the might always be there. Support from family, friends and even well meaning strangers is helpful.
Sincerely,
Angie*

“ My sincere sympathy to the family and friends of Billy. The loss of our dear loved ones can be very difficult and distressing to cope with. It has helped myself and others when we remember that our dear loved ones now safely rest in the loving memory of our Grand Creator, Jehovah (Psalm 83 : 18 - God's name). May you be comforted in knowing that Jehovah hates death (1 Corinthian 15:26)

“ Prayers for family. Lived up the street from Billy and Evelyn in east Nashville. We were going to meet at Houston's in White Bluff for Catfish soon to touch base as old people. So sorry that is not going to happen now.
