“ To the entire Temple family. May God watch over and comfort you in you with precious memories and give you strength in the coming days. I have many happy memories of all of your family as child growing up across the alley from your family home. You will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Rusty and I were building engineers at Lipscomb. He was such a funny guy to work with and always made the day more eventful! I'm sure his wife has heard about the "wall of shame" in Fanning Hall. Also, his "looking good" comments as we walked in some Elam Hall rooms and watching him carefully step over all the mess on the floor was fun to watch! He will be missed!!

“ Hello Becky: I'm sorry for the loss of your brother. Our Lord Jesus wept when Mary and Martha lost their brother Lazarus. He understood the pain they experienced. Jesus mirrored the love and compassion God had expressed to the descendants of Abraham for a thousand years.
