“ Ms. Bren as we called her at Goodpasture Aftercare Program was the sweetest lady you would ever meet. My son Caymen adored Ms. Bren. She even attended one of his birthday parties years ago, he was shocked and thrilled when he saw her coming through the door. He smiled from ear to ear. You were an awesome lady Ms. Bren. You will truly be missed! Sending prayers to your son and his family 🙏🙏

“ Brenda would always encourage me. Every time that we talked we would just laugh, and laugh. She even asked me to play the piano for her, and I was very happy, and blessed to do so. She always told me how much that she enjoys my prayers, and my photography.

“ Mrs Bailey was the sweetest person I have ever know. She was my neighbor first then became my good friend. I will miss our talks. She always had a smile on her face and something funny to say. I will always miss her.

“ So hard to say goodbye to someone so special. My family and I attended church with Brenda and her smile just stood out like a neon sign! About 20 years ago she said something to me one Sunday morning that made me feel special and happy and when I feel down I hear her voice saying those kind words. Needless to say she will always be there for me in my heart! It was easy to love her and I pray for so many that has lost her presence in their life. Special prayers for Randy, Melanie, Tanner and Kayla and her special bond with Cindy and so many more. We were so blessed to know Mrs Brenda! ❤️🙏

“ I met Brenda at church many many years ago. I immediately liked her. She was so warm and friendly. You rarely saw her without that beautiful smile. Loved our chats. My best memory of Brenda is from a couple years ago. I was home bound by then and out of the blue she called me to say she was dropping something off. When she got here, she had a little roasted chicken. She said they had a sale to buy two and I thought of you. It was so sweet. She was a wonderful loving Christian lady. The world has lost someone very special , but they are rejoicing in heaven as they threw open the gate to welcome her home. My heart goes out to all her loved ones. May God bless you and give you strength and comfort.
