“ Pat, Linda, Rose and Jason.....please know how sad I am. Brenda and I were good friends in Arlington, Texas when she lived here. We worked together for several years and developed a close friendship. After she moved to Tennessee to be closer to you all, we continued to talk on the phone and text one another often. She meant so much to me and I will miss her so much. God has a new and precious angel and I know she is having a glorious reunion with her family members and those precious fur babies that went before her. I am thankful for her and what she meant to me for many years. She loved you all with her whole heart. I am sending much love and many hugs to you all.
