

Bryan Adam Crook

March 26, 1991 - March 11, 2026

Bryan Adam Crook, 34, of Hendersonville, passed away March 11, 2026.

Bryan was born in Nashville on March 26, 1991. He attended Beech High School and worked as an HVAC professional. Bryan lived life the only way he knew how — at full throttle.

Fearless is the only word to describe Bryan. He lived on the edge and never slowed down. He was wild and full of life, always chasing the next adventure and never afraid to take risks. Bryan had a larger-than-life personality and a gift for telling stories that could keep a room laughing for hours. He was the life of the party, the loudest voice, the biggest energy, and the one nobody could forget. He loved hard, lived hard, and did everything with intensity. Full of pride, a Mama's Boy, and someone who made sure he never lost at anything, Bryan was truly a born winner.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents, Barbara Swindle, Bill Edwards, Dorothy Crook, and Thomas Wayne Crook, Sr.

Bryan is survived by his parents, Sue and Larry Parchman, and Thomas and Janet Crook; his wifey, Malia Smith; his children, Cateleia and Makua; his brother and sister-in-laws, Tommy and Elaina Crook III, Donald and Jessi McNier, Jesse and Tabitha McNier, Nicole McNier, Zack Parchman, Lee and Tara Mayhugh, Heather (Sean) Teague, his aunts and uncles, Barbara and Terry White, Bonnie Allen, Shelia Stout, Ann Edwards, Kerry and Angie West, and Gary and Daveta Crook; his nieces and nephews, Drew, K'Lee, Kevy, Zhuri, Kisaac, Dayton, Brooklyn, and Braiden along with many more. Also his beloved cousins and friends that were just like family.

A Celebration of Life will be held April 4, 2026, from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM at Bluegrass Country Club in Hendersonville, Tennessee.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to Bryan's wife's GoFund me.

“ To the entire family, me and my family will continue sending prayers through these hard and difficult times. Bryan always lived the fast life and there are times I wish I could live even half of how he did. Full of joy, laughter and fearless. Bryan we know your riding through those beautiful gates with your wings □ watching over your entire family, Malia and the kids! There are so many great memories that I will hold dear to my heart! Prayers for all. Fly high Bryan.
