“ Bill Sade and Family,

So sorry to hear about the death of your sister Carolyn. I met her a few times at Bethel when she was in Kingsport visiting you. She had a beautiful smile and was very friendly and easy to talk to. My thoughts and prayers continue to be with you and your special family during this difficult time.

“ I met Carolyn through her partner Bob Mueller. Although I didn't get to see her often, she was such a pleasant person and a joy to be around. I'm so very sad and sorry Carolyn is gone. She certainly will be missed by all who knew her.

“ Carolyn always had a smile. We were neighbors for 10 years and having her next door was delightful. Her laugh was infectious! She will be missed by not only me, but the entire community we live in. She is definitely our newest angel!
