“ Cecil was my first boss at my first full time job out of high school. He was parts manager at John Tune Import Motors on West End. I became assistant parts manager and learned a lot to say the least from this man. He called me "Little Wop" . We never had cross words, and worked together very well. Later in life when I had 7 Midas Auto stores, I asked him to come to work for us, but he was content working on Subaru cars and working for O'Reillies ,,,,, my loss ! I should have visited him ; I called him in 2019 , and was going to visit him, and now I regret not doing so. I never knew that Larry had passed away either. I only knew Sylvia and Larry . I hope to see you in that Big Parts Department up there some day , Brewer !! Mike Chilando

Thank you, I remembered as a kid that name. He knew his parts right up to the end.
