

Charles Ray Hall

December 16, 1958 - October 16, 2021

Charles Ray Hall passed away at the age of 62 in his home on October 16, 2021. Charles who was a lifelong resident of Nashville TN was born on December 16, 1958. He was preceded in death by his parents Augue Hall and Mamie Yates.

Charles was well known among many as a strong self-advocate for persons with Intellectual and Development Disabilities. He served as a member of several local advocacy groups including People First of Tennessee. He believed everyone should be treated with dignity and kindness regardless of their personal life circumstances and demonstrated this in his enduring care for others.

He will be greatly missed by his many friends and his Mid-TN Supported Living Family.

A Celebration of Life will take place, outdoors, on Friday Nov. 12th at 11 AM at his church, Paragon Mills Church of Christ, 4828 Aster Drive Nashville TN 37211.

In lieu of flowers, Charles would wish for donations to be made to his long-term support agency Mid-TN Supported Living or Nashville Habitat for Humanity.
