“ *We are very sorry for your loss. David was such a kind and caring man. We had many conversations about family and life over the years. He was extremely proud of his family and loved everyone deeply. We will miss our talks and his baritone voice. He was much more than a customer, he was our friend. “ Marilyn Smith Rowell

I am Marilyn Smith Rowell. I am currently living in Birmingham, Alabama. David lived across the street from me on Summer Avenue in East Nashville. We played together from the age of two years old until I moved across town at the age of twelve. David, Marsha Malone(lived next door to the Stringfields), and I went to Bailey Elementary and Bailey Junior High together either walking or riding on candy boxes in Mr. Stringfield’s panel truck. We were very close friends. When I learned of David’s tragic automobile death, so many wonderful memories have come flooding back to me. During the eighties when my Aunt, Mrs. Hazel Schiel, was in Baptist Hospital a number of times due to illness, I would visit her. I would always make it a point to see David at his office. I have had many tears of sadness, but tears of joy because I know that David is in heaven with Jesus and our Heavenly Father and walking the streets of gold. My prayers have been and will continue to be with all the members of David’s family. In Christ, Marilyn Smith Rowell

“ I was married to David's first cousin, Sherry Lovelace of Old Hickory, Tennessee. Like David, I am not perfect; however, we both claim the grace of Jesus Christ! We are saved by grace, not of works, lest anyone boast. Let he who hasn't sinned cast the first stone. I honor David's commitment to Jesus Christ and his advocacy of Baptist Hospital. He rescued Middle Tennessee Medical Center from HCA and supported Williamson Medical Center in its battles with St. Thomas during the 80s. I honor him and am grateful to have been related to him through marriage. My sympathies to his children and grandchildren; also to my ex and our children.
