“ Uncle Chuck Loved the Lord, he kept a Bible always in the drawer by his bed. He was so Very Proud to be a Veteran and Served in the Korean War. He built wonderful things with his hands, my favorite was a beautiful green house out of old windows. He had a green thumb and all around his home were the most gorgeous flowers especially roses I remember a bush full of big white roses in his back yard and I commented how lovely they were and he said the name of the rose was Moonshine. He was kind and good to many. May you finally be at Peace Uncle Chuck no more worries.
