

Charulata Rao

December 5, 2017

Charulata "Lata" Rao, age 69, passed away in Nashville, TN on December 5, 2017. Born in Kudal, India and immigrating to the United States in 1973, Lata felt a true calling to nursing and worked as a nurse for 30 years at Tampa General Hospital in Tampa, Florida. She was known for her compassion and care towards everyone she encountered as well as her exquisite Indian cooking skills, knowledge of all things seafood, joy for entertaining, passion for travel, and love of singing and classical Indian music. She was a devoted and caring mother to her only child, Amy Krishna Rao Mohan, and moved to Nashville, Tennessee in 2012 for the greatest joys of her life, her grandchildren, Arnav, age 5 and Prem, age 2. A visitation will be held Sunday, December 10th from 2:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m. at Phillips-Robinson Funeral Home followed by a private cremation. A celebration of life will be held in Tampa in early 2018. In lieu of flowers, her family asks that you take a moment in honor of Lata to cherish, love, and hug those around you. We'd ask that any monetary donation go toward dementia research, an organization advocating for death with dignity, or a charity of your choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Charulata Rao

October 14, 2022 at 08:02 PM

AJ

“ To the Rao Family

I would like to take this time to express my personal condolences to the entire family. We are sorry to hear about the recent passing of Charulata Rao. Our deepest thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. On this day we share your pain. We are created by God from one man. With this thinking in mind, we are all related. Yes your lost is indeed our lost. It is clear that Charulata was truly loved by many. She had traits that moved others to want to be around her. If we as imperfect humans can see those good traits that she had, God does also. These are the kind of people that God desires to fill the earth with. So we should not be surprised that He gives this comforting promise to those who find themselves exhausted and grieving at heart today. Notice how the promise will soon become a true blessing to ourselves, and to all of our departed loved ones. God states that soon He will call to those in the grave, and that they will hear His voice and stand up in life again. (John 5:28-29). This promise from God serves as a personal guarantee to surviving family members and friends that our loved ones will live again. Yes what outstanding love God has for His earthly family. He is the source of all tender mercy and comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4). God also wants us to learn all that we can about the resurrection blessings, so He has preserved nine accounts that speak about this loving arrangement that will soon take place earth wide. Here is just one such example that I would like to encourage all to take the time to read. It is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. Yes please allow all Accounts to provide the family and friends with true comfort from God. Remember that God has given us His personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2) was

Albert Caldwell Jr - December 14, 2017 at 05:06 PM

AJ

“ To the Rao Family

I would like to take this time to express my personal condolences to the entire family. We are sorry to hear about the recent passing of Charulata Rao. Our deepest thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. On this day we share your pain. We are created by God from one man. With this thinking in mind, we are all related. Yes your lost is indeed our lost. It is clear that Charulata was truly love by many. She had traits that moved others to want to be around her. If we as imperfect human can see those good traits that she had, God does also. These are the kind of people that God desires to full the earth with. So we should not be surprised that He give this comforting promise to those who find themselves ex's grieving at heart today. Notice how the promise will soon true blessing to ourselves, and to all of our departed love ones. God states that soon He will call to those in the grave, and that they will hear His voice and stand up in life again. (John 5:28-29). This promise from God serves as a personal guarantee to surviving family members and friends that our love ones will live again. Yes what outstanding love God has for His earthly family. He is the source of all tender mercy and comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4). God also wants us to learn all that we can about the resurrection blessings, so He has preserved nine accounts that speaks about this loving arrangement that will soon take place earth wide. Here is just one such example that I would like to encourage all to take the time to read. It is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. Yes please allow all Accounts to provide the family and friends with true comfort from God. Remember that God has given us His personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2) was

Albert Caldwell Jr - December 14, 2017 at 05:05 PM

AJ

“ To the Rao Family

I would like to take this time to express my personal condolences to the entire family. We are sorry to hear about the recent passing of Charulata Rao. Our deepest thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. On this day we share your pain. We are created by God from one man. With this thinking in mind, we are all related. Yes your lost is indeed our lost. It is clear that Charulata was truly loved by many. She had traits that moved others to want to be around her. If we as imperfect humans can see those good traits that she had, God does also. These are the kind of people that God desires to fill the earth with. So we should not be surprised that He gives this comforting promise to those who find themselves grieving at heart today. Notice how the promise will soon become a true blessing to ourselves, and to all of our departed loved ones. God states that soon He will call to those in the grave, and that they will hear His voice and stand up in life again. (John 5:28-29). This promise from God serves as a personal guarantee to surviving family members and friends that our loved ones will live again. Yes what outstanding love God has for His earthly family. He is the source of all tender mercy and comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4). God also wants us to learn all that we can about the resurrection blessings, so He has preserved nine accounts that speak about this loving arrangement that will soon take place earth wide. Here is just one such example that I would like to encourage all to take the time to read. It is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. Yes please allow all Accounts to provide the family and friends with true comfort from God. Remember that God has given us His personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2) was

Albert Caldwell Jr - December 14, 2017 at 05:04 PM

AJ

“ To the Rao Family

I would like to take this time to express my personal condolences to the entire family. We are sorry to hear about the recent passing of Charulata Rao. Our deepest thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. On this day we share your pain. We are created by God from one man. With this thinking in mind, we are all related. Yes your lost is indeed our lost. It is clear that Charulata was truly loved by many. She had traits that moved others to want to be around her. If we as imperfect humans can see those good traits that she had, God does also. These are the kind of people that God desires to fill the earth with. So we should not be surprised that He gives this comforting promise to those who find themselves exhausted and grieving at heart today. Notice how the promise will soon become a true blessing to ourselves, and to all of our departed loved ones. God states that soon He will call to those in the grave, and that they will hear His voice and stand up in life again. (John 5:28-29). This promise from God serves as a personal guarantee to surviving family members and friends that our loved ones will live again. Yes what outstanding love God has for His earthly family. He is the source of all tender mercy and comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4). God also wants us to learn all that we can about the resurrection blessings, so He has preserved nine accounts that speak about this loving arrangement that will soon take place earth wide. Here is just one such example that I would like to encourage all to take the time to read. It is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. Yes please allow all Accounts to provide the family and friends with true comfort from God. Remember that God has given us His personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2) was

Albert Caldwell Jr - December 14, 2017 at 05:03 PM

AJ

“ To the Rao Family

I would like to take this time to express my personal condolences to the entire family. We are sorry to hear about the recent passing of Charulata Rao. Our deepest thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. On this day we share your pain. We are created by God from one man. With this thinking in mind, we are all related. Yes your lost is indeed our lost. It is clear that Charulata was truly love by many. She had traits that moved others to want to be around her. If we as imperfect human can see those good traits that she had, God does also. These are the kind of people that God desires to full the earth with. So we should not be surprised that He give this comforting promise to those who find themselves ex's grieving at heart today. Notice how the promise will soon true blessing to ourselves, and to all of our departed love ones. God states that soon He will call to those in the grave, and that they will hear His voice and stand up in life again. (John 5:28-29). This promise from God serves as a personal guarantee to surviving family members and friends that our love ones will live again. Yes what outstanding love God has for His earthly family. He is the source of all tender mercy and comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4). God also wants us to learn all that we can about the resurrection blessings, so He has preserved nine accounts that speaks about this loving arrangement that will soon take place earth wide. Here is just one such example that I would like to encourage all to take the time to read. It is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. Yes please allow all Accounts to provide the family and friends with true comfort from God. Remember that God has given us His personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2) was

Albert Caldwell Jr - December 14, 2017 at 05:03 PM

AJ

“ To the Rao Family

I would like to take this time to express my personal condolences to the entire family. We are sorry to hear about the recent passing of Charulata Rao. Our deepest thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. On this day we share your pain. We are created by God from one man. With this thinking in mind, we are all related. Yes your lost is indeed our lost. It is clear that Charulata was truly love by many. She had traits that moved others to want to be around her. If we as imperfect human can see those good traits that she had, God does also. These are the kind of people that God desires to full the earth with. So we should not be surprised that He give this comforting promise to those who find themselves ex's grieving at heart today. Notice how the promise will soon true blessing to ourselves, and to all of our departed love ones. God states that soon He will call to those in the grave, and that they will hear His voice and stand up in life again. (John 5:28-29). This promise from God serves as a personal guarantee to surviving family members and friends that our love ones will live again. Yes what outstanding love God has for His earthly family. He is the source of all tender mercy and comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4). God also wants us to learn all that we can about the resurrection blessings, so He has preserved nine accounts that speaks about this loving arrangement that will soon take place earth wide. Here is just one such example that I would like to encourage all to take the time to read. It is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. Yes please allow all Accounts to provide the family and friends with true comfort from God. Remember that God has given us His personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2) was

Albert Caldwell Jr - December 14, 2017 at 05:02 PM

AJ

“ To the Rao Family

I would like to take this time to express my personal condolences to the entire family. We are sorry to hear about the recent passing of Charulata Rao. Our deepest thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. On this day we share your pain. We are created by God from one man. With this thinking in mind, we are all related. Yes your lost is indeed our lost. It is clear that Charulata was truly love by many. She had traits that moved others to want to be around her. If we as imperfect human can see those good traits that she had, God does also. These are the kind of people that God desires to full the earth with. So we should not be surprised that He give this comforting promise to those who find themselves ex's grieving at heart today. Notice how the promise will soon true blessing to ourselves, and to all of our departed love ones. God states that soon He will call to those in the grave, and that they will hear His voice and stand up in life again. (John 5:28-29). This promise from God serves as a personal guarantee to surviving family members and friends that our love ones will live again. Yes what outstanding love God has for His earthly family. He is the source of all tender mercy and comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4). God also wants us to learn all that we can about the resurrection blessings, so He has preserved nine accounts that speaks about this loving arrangement that will soon take place earth wide. Here is just one such example that I would like to encourage all to take the time to read. It is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. Yes please allow all Accounts to provide the family and friends with true comfort from God. Remember that God has given us His personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2) was

Albert Caldwell Jr - December 14, 2017 at 05:01 PM

AJ

“ To the Rao Family

I would like to take this time to express my personal condolences to the entire family. We are sorry to hear about the recent passing of Charulata Rao. Our deepest thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. On this day we share your pain. We are created by God from one man. With this thinking in mind, we are all related. Yes your lost is indeed our lost. It is clear that Charulata was truly love by many. She had traits that moved others to want to be around her. If we as imperfect human can see those good traits that she had, God does also. These are the kind of people that God desires to full the earth with. So we should not be surprised that He give this comforting promise to those who find themselves ex's grieving at heart today. Notice how the promise will soon true blessing to ourselves, and to all of our departed love ones. God states that soon He will call to those in the grave, and that they will hear His voice and stand up in life again. (John 5:28-29). This promise from God serves as a personal guarantee to surviving family members and friends that our love ones will live again. Yes what outstanding love God has for His earthly family. He is the source of all tender mercy and comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4). God also wants us to learn all that we can about the resurrection blessings, so He has preserved nine accounts that speaks about this loving arrangement that will soon take place earth wide. Here is just one such example that I would like to encourage all to take the time to read. It is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. Yes please allow all Accounts to provide the family and friends with true comfort from God. Remember that God has given us His personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2) was

Albert Caldwell Jr - December 14, 2017 at 05:00 PM

TY

“ Very sorry for your loss. Many people find comfort in the Bible during difficult times like this. John 5:28,29 says "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Please take a look at this short video that gives us hope for the future. https://www.jw.org/en/publications/videos/#en/mediaitems/VODMinistryTools/pub-INV_4_VI DEO

Tyler - December 07, 2017 at 04:58 AM

ER

“ Lata was a constant presence at Berkeley Prep, where Amy and I went to school, and I will never forget seeing her after our shows. She was always so serene, dignified, and always put-together. She seemed perpetually bemused that her perfect daughter was acting in plays and musicals with some very earnest but terribly awkward young men, but Lata beamed with pride nevertheless. Lata lived an indelible life. Nobody who met her could ever forget her. I know I will always hold her dear. Thank you for sharing her with us, Amy.

Eric - December 06, 2017 at 01:24 PM

SF

“ Knowing Lata Auntie was a joy. She was the light of the party and always knew how to have fun. We have so many wonderful memories of her. Our love to you and the boys Amy.

Sobha Fritz - December 06, 2017 at 12:19 PM

DD

“ Amy and Family, our thoughts and prayers are with you. Lata was lovely and delightful and her spirit is missed.

David D-B - December 05, 2017 at 07:28 PM