“ *To the family of Chris...I met him in 1966 when we were in the 8th grade..long long time ago. He and Tony were a part of my life all thru high school. Crazy drummer and good kisser..yep in the 8th grade I "liked" him first..And yes I knew him before Tony and then the rest is history. He once had a wreck on a motorcycle and landed right on top of someone burning leaves..and badly burned his legs. He didn't always have the best of luck as my brother also once punched him thinking he was Tony! So sorry for the loss of a father. Hope he had a good life after high school as I loss touch with him...last time I saw Chris was at Tony's funeral. Two brothers died too young...so sorry....
Sincerely, Lisa Kilgore*

“ To the Smiths, I am so sorry for your loss. I'll always remember the fun we all had jamming together. Certain songs that come on the radio still and always will remind me of those nights of making music until the wee hours. Good times. Chris has gone home, and you all are in our prayers.
