

Christopher "Smiley" Wilson Langdon

November 21, 1968 - October 9, 2023

Christopher "Smiley" Wilson Langdon, age 54, was born November 21, 1968, and became an angel October 9, 2023. He was married to his very best friend, Lisa M. Langdon. Smiley loved living out in the country where he could grow his vegetables. He loved to can vegetables; he should have been a chef but life sent him in a different direction. He became an iron worker where he got his nickname "Smiley" because he always had a smile on his face with "good" words to go with his opinions which he would share with anyone who wanted to listen. Lisa was the one who helped put his life back on track, and that made him truly happy.

Preceded in death by his parents, Frank M. Langdon and Barbara Stewart. Survived by his wife, Lisa Langdon; brother, Frank (Selena) Langdon; sister, Tricia Langdon; 4 grandchildren, Isabella, Jackson, Chase, and Colton; nieces, Olivia, Dana, Jamie, and Kendra; 5 great-nieces and nephews; bonus daughters, Rachel (Sean) and Jordan (Adam); furbabies, Betsy Ross and Theodore Roosevelt.

He was loved by many, all his opinions and laughs will be truly missed.

A Celebration of Smiley's Life will be conducted Saturday, October 14th from 1-4pm at Phillips-Robinson Funeral Home.

“ He was a wonderful man and a wonderful friend who always gave me a hug and gave me support after my husband passed away. My husband loved him and so did I. He always lived up to his nickname. He had the most wonderful smile every time I saw him, even after he became ill. I will truly miss his grace and friendship. RIP my friend and give Darrell a smile from me. You will truly be missed.
