

Clarence "Fred" Ramage

February 24, 1947 - May 1, 2026

Clarence "Fred" Ramage, 79, of Memphis, TN, passed away May 1, 2026. Memphis, Tennessee, was his lifelong home, where he was born, raised, and built a life. In his final year, he resided in Nashville, surrounded by compassionate care and support. He was raised in a large, loving family with many brothers and sisters. He took great joy in watching the Memphis Grizzlies and University of Memphis basketball and devoted many years to a career in the commercial printing industry. He will be remembered for his warm sense of humor, kind spirit, and the caring heart he shared with all who knew him.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Harry Clifford Ramage and Clara Mae Ramage, as well as his sons, Kipp Ramage and Tim Ramage.

He is survived by his wife, Kathy Ramage of Panama City, FL; his daughters, Amy (Scott) Tosh of Nashville, TN, and Kerri (Frank) Picon of FL; his son, Chris (Kelly) Ramage of Henderson, TN; his daughter-in-law, Beth Ramage of Seattle, WA; and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
