“ I am sorry to have learned of this so late. I was lucky to have known Claudia, I called her Claudy, sometimes Mo. She was the best. I will always miss her. One day there will be no more goodbyes only howdy, howdies, and never goodbye.

“ My heart is broken! From the first time I met Claudia it was a peaceful connection and I have always considered her family. Over the years we have laughed, cried and laughed until my sides hurt. I could write a book on all of the things we have shared and done in and out of town. She may be dancing with Angels in heaven, but her spirit will never leave my side. Rest in peace my sister!

“ Claudia and I worked together at Warner Bros. in the 80's and became fast friends. She, Ima and I had many, many great times together, working, playing softball or just playing period. I lost touch when I moved to Florida and have missed her these many years. She is in the hands of God now and my thoughts and prayers go out to Mrs. Mize, Frankie, Randy and the rest of the Mize family. She will be missed.

“ Claudia was such a unique and beautiful soul; and although I haven't seen her in many years the fond memories I hold of her are still fresh in my mind. She was so down-to-earth and I found it refreshing. Her lovely and sincere smile was always a welcome sight. We were kids, she was fun, had a great wit, and always made everyone feel special. I'll certainly always regret not looking her up again. May your many happy memories of Claudia serve to make this time of grief somewhat easier. Right now it may sound trite, but, it's a blessing that she was spared endless months of suffering. My heart goes out to the family as the Mize bright light has been dimmed.

With sincere condolences,

“ Claudia and I worked together at Mercury Records in the 1990s. She was always such a hard worker and "office therapist." She taught me so much about being a woman in the music business and was always there to help me through the rough spots. She was such a blessing to me. Godspeed my friend.
