“ Every mother fears the loss of a child. There are no words that will relieve the agony you feel, but you have all the beautiful memories. Take comfort in the love and joy he brought to you and know you have friends and family who will share the grief with you. We are there for you.

“ Lynne, My heart goes out to you and your family. Clay was obviously loved by many, more importantly adored by you. May our Father release his joy and peace through this experience. I pray a greater sense of His Presence will be known by you and your family over the next several hours, days, and months. Know this, Our Father, His son Jesus through the power of Holy Spirit will go before you and loves you deeply. God bless.
