“ Mr. McCullough was always involved in whatever his children were doing. I had the pleasure of working with Michael at Inglewood School and Mr. Clyde looked so tough on the outside but he was one of the sweetest parents I dealt with in 24 years of teaching. If I needed something, it was there the next day! He loved his family! I know your hearts are heavy but know that a little bit of him lives on in each of you. A heart that big doesn't end. All my love.
