

Cynthia "CC" Page

February 16, 1965 - September 16, 2022

Cynthia "CC" Dawn Winters Page a native of Nashville, TN was born on February 16, 1965 and entered heaven's gates on September 16, 2022 after a long battle with a terminal illness in which she fought like a resilient soldier. CC spent her childhood in Goodlettsville, TN where she attended Goodlettsville High School.

She was an extremely creative and artistic soul. She loved crafting, music, cooking, doing puzzles, watching her stories, home making, holidays with family, decorating and adopting anyone without a family. Most of all, she loved her family and her husband Tim. CC will be greatly missed and forever loved for her sparkling spirit and loving nature. She was like the vibrant colors of the rainbow and had the personality of every color.

'Her wings were ready but our hearts were not'

Preceded in death by grandparents James & Frances Callis and James & Marie Winters, daughter Ashley Curtis, bonus dad David Eschbach and a multitude of family and friends.

“ I was only privileged to meet CC about 3 times at Staceys hair salon. I remember how sweet & pretty she was. I remember how Stacey bragged on her (as she does all her sisters) when i complimented CC's boot socks they where so unique and Stacey said CC made them her self and that she does that with lots of things, she was very talented. Wish i could have known her better. I am so, so sorry for all her families loss. May God comfort all of you during this difficult time and always. Love, LaNora Gaylord

“ You was always my mom's Cindy Dawn. I have so many memories of you and your sisters but I know you and Aunt Myra are having a great time dancing in the streets of gold,and I love and miss you both. You was blessed to have the best sisters in the world. Cindy you are a Heavenly Angel and Stacey, Angie and April ya are Angels here on earth and I'm so glad that I was honored to be the one you call Aunt Carol. God be with you thru this time, I love you all. R.I.P. Cindy Dawn until we meet again.
