“ So sorry to hear of your loss. Dan was a classmate from St. Willibrord. I have some wonderful memories of him there. I will keep him and all of you in my prayers.

“ When I first met Dan four years ago, I appreciated his straight forward demeanor, but thought that this old guy was gonna be hard to deal with. Over those four years, I developed a great respect for Dan. I looked up to him far beyond his role. His long-winded stories, his laughter, his love for his family, his love of golf, his grumpiness, his "tell it like he sees it" way, his wisdom, I treasured each interaction, even when he was chewing me out. He somehow helped me to remain grounded. I never imagined our last conversation would be the last. Rest In Peace, my dear friend. Thank you for being a part of my life. I wish you all aces. My deepest, heartfelt sympathies to his family and many friends.

“ Dan was always a great friend and golfing partner. We didn't often win when we partnered up but we always had fun. You never had to guess where Dan stood on any issue and if he disagreed you would know. Dan was the most reliable person I have ever met. If he told you he would be there, he would be there. He was always the 1st one to show up. I will miss his stories. I know he is waiting for us on the 1st tee somewhere. Rest in peace.

“ Gonna miss golfing with Dan and having him along on the Myrtle Beach trips. He always had an entertaining story to tell.
