I couldn't believe how fast I fell in love with this very great person I met his mother on our first date and I was introduced to her as his girlfriend Wow right the next date he asked me to marry him just by saying please 🙏 my heart melted and I said yes I loved him so much after we were married for 20 years I was working as a hostess and we were busy with the dinner crowd and in he walks larger than life got down on one knee and asked me to marry him again raising another ring 💍 with diamonds and sapphires it was so quiet all the Customers and worker's watching to see the outcome I was again my heart ❤️ melted with more love that I can't believe even was possible and I said Yes and he gave me a big hug and kiss 💋 and said I see you at home and then he smiled and walked out the door he was such a incurable romantic ☐ he would here our song 🎵 on the radio it didn't matter where we were parking lot or somebody's drive way he would stop the car turned up the music and walked around the car get me out and there we dancing to our song now how many people out there ever here of someone doing that !❤️ I have so much respect and love for this beautiful man that to the very end of his life he has had with his family and friends was able to help just a little bit more before he was called up to join his family in heaven 🙏 My heart is very sad but it's still full of love and happiness for his last gifts that he gave I'll always love him and I am pretty sure that he's up there rearranging the clouds ☁️ and doing his favorite dishes my dad always said when I was done with him he wants him well I think he's up there talking about carpenter work because my dad was one for 40 years as well love you Daniel always ❤️
