Danny was an avid fisherman and golfer (and especially liked when he beat his brother David!). He loved to spend time on the lake on his pontoon boat with Aimee. He dedicated most of his life in the mental health field graduating from Indiana University with a Master's degree. Danny relished in coaching his kids in youth sports and supporting his nephews by attending their many wrestling matches. Danny was also a huge Cubs fan and loved watching them win the world series. Some of his favorite memories were the fishing trips he took with his dad and brother Jay. Danny enjoyed taking his two dogs, Mae and June, on walks by the lake and playing ball with them. Danny loved to bake mom's recipes, especially the nut roll and apple slices. There will be a celebration of life event at a later date in Lowell, Indiana.

“ Danny has been a lifelong family friend with the Forrester family. He was always smiling and laughing at something my brother Scott said. He really really loved Lauren and Clark, and was always proud of both of them. Very sad news and hope the best for everyone close. Danny will never be forgotten.

“ Auntie Aggie and the Hladek cousins extend their deepest sympathy. Danny, always with a smile on his face, was very friendly, and we enjoyed his sense of humor at the family reunions over the years. We believe Danny, along with your parents, will continue to watch over you all. Sending love from Indiana.
