“ The first time I met Flop was after school at Park Avenue. I was leaving the school building and walked past him sitting on the steps. He threw a big mud ball hitting me in the back. I turned around and threw it right back at him. This was the beginning of our 60 year friendship. Over the years from prom nights, Spy dances and basketball games at McCabe Park, fast pitch softball games and many games of golf and a few too many late nights, we shared many good times together. I will miss his great spirit and quick wit most of all. Rest in peace now, good buddy.

Love,
Bud
